Day-by-day itinerary

DAY 1

Arrive in Manali · Old Manali and Hadimba

Morning — Pickup and check-in

Pickup at Manali bus stand (overnight Volvos from Delhi arrive around 7–9 am) or Bhuntar airport, about 50 km away. Rest after the journey.

Afternoon — Hadimba Devi temple

The 16th-century wooden pagoda temple in a deodar forest, then a walk into Old Manali's lanes and apple orchards.

Evening — Orientation dinner

Your host walks through the plan, the weather for the Atal Tunnel side, and what to layer. Hosted dinner in Old Manali.

DAY 2

Naggar Castle and Solang Valley

9:00 am — Naggar Castle

About 22 km down the valley: the 15th-century stone-and-wood castle of the Kullu rajas and the Nicholas Roerich art gallery next door.

Afternoon — Solang Valley

About 14 km north of Manali. Paragliding, the ropeway and ATVs are optional add-ons; there's an easy walk for anyone who'd rather just watch the mountains.

Evening — Vashisht

The old village above the Beas and its hot-spring baths (separate for men and women).

DAY 3

Atal Tunnel to Sissu and Lahaul

9:00 am — Through the Atal Tunnel

About 9 km long and 3,000 m up, the tunnel takes you from green Kullu into the bare cold desert of Lahaul in minutes.

Midday — Sissu

The Sissu waterfall, the Chandra river and the helipad lake. In winter this side is usually under snow.

Afternoon — Lahaul villages

A drive towards Keylong or Gondhla (for the old Gondhla fort), depending on the road and time.

Evening — Night in Sissu

A homestay or small hotel by the river. Hosted Lahauli dinner — try the siddu and the local butter tea.

DAY 4

Sissu to Manali

Morning — Slow morning

Sunrise over the Lahaul peaks, breakfast, and a walk by the river.

11:00 am — Back through the tunnel

Drive to Manali (about 1½ hours without traffic) for a drop at the bus stand by about 2 pm. Bhuntar airport drops are 1½ hours further.
